ADVOCATES OF FREE BRIDGES

Got a Move on and Have Called Auother Meeting of Council for Friday Evening, When it is Hoped to get the Bill for the Legislature Endorsed - Clerk Watkins' Statement of the Quarterly Approia-

There was to have been a regular meeting of the city council last night, but a quorum falled to materialize. Only five members showed up in the first branch and seven in the second. A special meeting has been called for Friday evening by the advocates of the free bridge bill, which is to be presented to the legislature for passage.

to the legislature for passage.

Considerable business was to have been disposed of last night, including City Engineer White's report, a synopsis of which appeared in yesterday's Intelligencer, and the adoption of the free bridge bill drafted by City Solicitor Nesbitt, Clerk Watkins had prepared his list of the division of the three months' appropriations among the city departments, which was as follows:

The members present at roll call in the first branch were: Messars. Balrd, Ebeling, McKelvey, Schmidt and Zwicker. Mayor Butts was in the throne, and Assistant City Clerk William Nolte, was prepared to officiate in the absence of clerk of the first branch Thomas O'Brien, jr., who is in Charleston. Over in the second branch. Mr. Berry wielded the gavel in the absence of President Chew, and the roll call developed the following members present; Messars. Arndt, Bradbury, Gartley, Meyer, Kindelberger, Nesbitt and Travis.

Mr. C. Ed Schenerlein, of the committee of Islanders, seeing there was no quorum, hustled around and secured signatures for a special meeting Friday evening, when the free bridge bill among other things will be submitted. The call for the meeting was signed by Messars, McKelvey, Bradbury, Baird and Schmidt.

Neat office desk calendars were dis-tributed on the desks of the members of both branches of council, and the members, who failed to attend missed a good thing. The galendars were the gift of the Reymanw Brewing Company and fifty of them were distributed about the building.

LARGELY ATTENDED

Was the Funeral of the Venerable Samuel Danford.

The funeral of the venerable Samuel Danford yesterday at Crab Apple, was attended by a wonderfully large gathering of neighbors and friends. There ing of neighbors and friends. There were old men present who had known him all their lives and he was a man attending to affairs when they were children. They talked of the times before and during the war as familiarly as the present generation talks of the war of last year. With these white-haired men were their families, and the unpretentious house could not contain the people assembled to pay the last tribute of respect to an honored neighbor and citizen. Rev. Mr. Leumon conducted the services at the house and a choir of the Belmout ridge church led the music. The pall hearers were not of the older men, but of the wounger ones, including some of the grandchifdren and other relatives of the deceased, and all that was mortal of Samuel Danford was burded in the graveyard near the church alongside that of the wife and mother who preceded him several years.

sister, both suffering from severe colds and attendant tendencies, were persua-ded not to leave the house, but not-withstanding the horrible roads in that section, there was a long funeral pro-cession and hundreds of people witness ed the last act of the ceremony return-ing the body to the dust whence it

SECOND HAND DEALERS

Mixed up in a Case of Receiving Stolen

"Joe" Klonski, who conducts a sec-ond hand store on Eleventh street, reported yesterday a loss of some of his stock in trade, which took flight on Monday night. Mr. Klonski was of the opinion that his goods could be located in the stores of M. Morris and Ben Jacobs, and a search warrant from Squire Rogers to Lieutenant Dan Ingram was a preliminary which ended in a pair of pants, a vest and overcoat being found in Morris' place, which Klonski claimed were his. Squire Rogers will confer with Prosecuting Attorney Mey-er as to the steps to be taken in the

But in the meantime, Klonski swore out a warrant before Equire Fitzpatrick for Morris and his wife, charging them with receiving and concealing sloten goods. Owing to Mrs. Morris being in a delicate condition, the trial was set for January 17. Morris gave bond for his appearance then, when it is expected his wife will be able to testify.

Wesley M. E. Church.

Special services are now in progress at Wesley church and the interest is increasing at every meeting. A choir under the direction of George Hopwood Is rendering efficient services in the way of good singing. The class is composed of the young people of the Epworth League and they are a great help in the services. The pastor, Rev. S. P. Crummett, is doing his best preaching, and mett, is doing his best preaching, and his preaching is always good. He had expected some help this week, but was disappointed, but he is doing the preaching himself to the entire satisfaction of the large audiences that assemble night after night. The membership of the church is being greatly revived, and a great revival is expected before the services come to a close.

FELL OCCASIONALLY At Church Suppers, Weddings and

"The minister liked coffee. His long Sabbath day's work was begun with a cup of the strongest coffee and ended in the same way. Gradually the physical and mental machinery became clogged, tongue coated, dull headaches and a general depressed condition of the system, turned his delightful occupation into a dreary treadmill.

MRS. JAMES E. BUTLER,

MRS. JAMES E. BUTLER,
Sheridan, Mich.
The Ministers Wife.
"One day his attention was brought to the fact that the unsuspected coffee was very likely the cause of his trouble, and it was suggested that if he would use Postum Food Coffee and induce the good wife to be particular to boil it long enough to extract the delicious flavor and the elements which go to rebuild the broken down nerve centrea, his trouble would be gone.
"This was two years and a half ago, and since that time not a pound of coffee has been purchased by the minister's family. Morning, noon and night Postum makes its appearance on the table, and is enjoyed by all. With the departure of coffee went the minister's bad feeiings, and with the coming of Postum, came a feeling of exhilaration, a better appetite and a constantly increasing weight.

"From the start the minister's Postum has been properly made, because of the warning.
"At one time, during the absence of the house-wife, the domestic, not being particular about preparing Postum according to directions, made it weak and insipid, which we thad is a very common complaint among those who do not understand that there is no way to exract the delicious flavor from Postum except by long boiling. Made properly, it is clear, black and has a crisp, pungent, fascinating taste. Occasionally the minister has been induced to drink a cun of coffee at weddings, parties, etc., but many sicepless hours of the night are passed in consequence. This is a true experience."

A Candidate not Naturalized.

A remarkable spectacle was that yes terday of a man applying at the circulcourt for his naturalization papers. in view of the fact of his having been a Democratic candidate for constable at the November election, in one of the city districts. He was born in Ireland, and has been in this occurry five years. He secured his first papers about two years ago and will now take out the final documents. But few people had any knowledge of his not being natur-alized.

La Grippe Successfully Treated.

"I have just recovered from the second attack of la grippe this year," says Mr. James A. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days, against ten days for the former attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy, as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.'
